

The Chapel Family Bible Reading Program – Sept 26 – Oct 1
Doing Live Together: I think... I Be.

MONDAY: Proverbs 4:23; Philippians 4:6-7; 1 Peter 1:13

KEY VERSE: Philippians 4:8

OBSERVATION: Pure energy is found in thinking as Jesus thoughts. It should be the root of all other thoughts that produce what we believe about God and His word. When is it hard to think like Jesus? How do you return to those thoughts?

TUESDAY: Romans 12:2; Proverbs 28:26; Matthew 12:43-45

KEY VERSE: Acts 17:11

OBSERVATION: We need to direct our minds to reflect on how God is always truthful and never lies. If He says, "I will never leave you" than we know we're never alone. If He says, "I make all things work together for your good" than we can take comfort in our trials and tribulations. The power of God in our faith walk is most reflected when we think on the truthfulness of God. How do you distinguish between what is true and what is not?

WEDNESDAY: Psalm 119:160; John 17:17; James 1:18

KEY VERSE: Psalms 33:4

OBSERVATION: We live in a world where the line between right and wrong is continually blurred. The word of God never backtracks on what is right. Meditating on God's word on a regular basis equips a believer to live righteously. The power of God is most evident in believers who stand for what is right even in adversity. How am I challenging myself every day in the meditation, memorization, and application of God's word?

THURSDAY: 1 Timothy 4:12; Philippians 3:8; Colossians 3:23-24

KEY VERSE: 1 Timothy 3:13

OBSERVATION: To focus on the excellence of grace can captivate our minds and release us from the perils of negative thinking. Grace gives us the strength to move forward when we want to give up. The power of God activates our faith to think on the endless possibilities of grace through Christ. How is grace been revealed in my life today?

FRIDAY: Psalm 34:2; Psalms 100:2; Colossians 3:16

KEY VERSE: Psalm 78:4

OBSERVATION: There's none more worthy of praise than that of our Lord Jesus Christ. He took on the burden of our sins so that we can live free. Reflecting on the goodness of God always results in praise to His name. The power of God releases us from the depths of despair when we give ourselves over to thoughts of praise. What can you praise God for today?

SATURDAY: Matthew 3:8; John 15:16; Galatians 5:22-23

KEY VERSE: Luke 6:43-45

OBSERVATION: Jesus is not making up new commandments. He is merely pointing out that wrong thinking come from other sources. Name-calling and anger come from another tree other than the tree of Life (Godly Life). Identifying the source of our thoughts will help us determine if those thoughts are healthy or not. What kind of fruit are you allowing to grow on the tree of the mind?
