

The Chapel Family Bible Reading Program – April 3-8
Doing Life Together – Rock Church – A living Hope

MONDAY: Job 14:7-12, Job 27:8

KEY VERSE: Ecclesiastes 9:4

OBSERVATION Hope can be lost and found. It can be as tiny as an atom and still pack a powerful punch in the eye of despair. Hope is the gentle tug within the heart of every Christian to comfort us when we are tossed to and fro by trials. Hope is a powerful stimulant for the brokenhearted and dejected especially when we've lost loved ones in death. God has planted hope in the heart of every believer so that we can build a strong relationship of love and trust with Him. Where is your hope? Let it grow and nourish in the word of God everyday.

TUESDAY: Romans 4:18, 1 Thessalonians 5:8, Titus 3:7

KEY VERSE: Romans 8:24-25

OBSERVATION: In Scripture, according to the Hebrew and Greek words translated by the word "hope" and according to the biblical usage, hope is an indication of certainty. "Hope" in Scripture means "a strong and confident expectation." Though archaic today in modern terms, hope is akin to trust and a confident expectation, the sure certainty that what God has promised in the Word is true, has occurred, and or will in accordance with God's sure Word.

WEDNESDAY: Psalm 127:2, Proverbs 3:24, Psalm 50:5

KEY VERSE: Job 11:18

OBSERVATION: House alarms, security guards, and metal detectors offer some hope for protection against wicked people. The eternal hope in Christ means that you're completely secure in God's hand in this world and the next. When the storms of life are raging, your anchor is the hope that God is in control.

THURSDAY: Psalm 71:1, Psalm 25:21, Psalm 34:5

KEY VERSE: Psalm 25:3

OBSERVATION: Because of our hope in the blood of Jesus, believers don't have to worry about the shame of our sins. We confess our sins and are covered by His sacrifice. Not because of our good works, but through the grace of God. Christians can come boldly to the throne of grace and seek God's help because of hope.

FRIDAY 2 Corinthians 4:16, Hebrews 12:3, Exodus 19:4

KEY VERSE: Isaiah 40:31

OBSERVATION: The demands of this life can beat us down spiritually, emotionally, and physically. Yet remembering the hope we have in Christ to overcome evil with good, to bless and not curse, and to draw on His word gives us renewed energy to face the world.

SATURDAY: Romans 5:2,3, Psalm 16:9-11, Mathew 5:12, Psalm 119:57

KEY VERSE: Romans 12:12

OBSERVATION: Hope reveals the love of God that is within every believer. We are moved by the Spirit of God to show love to others in the hope that they will come to know Christ. Hope is the filter in which love is expressed in action and not just words.
