

The Chapel Family Bible Reading Program – March 4th – 9th
Doing Life Together – 3D Life

MONDAY:

KEY VERSE: Isaiah 55:11

OBSERVATION: What does God want you to do with your life? Are you doing it? Consider why it's important to start living according to your destiny. Living out your destiny will give you greater fulfillment, direction, stability, significance, identity, and provision in your life. Don't settle for less than the best God has for you, which is to find and fulfill your destiny every day that you live.

TUESDAY:

KEY VERSE: 1 Peter 2:9

OBSERVATION: Don't confuse busyness with purpose. While it's noble to be busy working for God, make sure that you're seeking God's will for your work rather than just jumping into activities that seem to be worthwhile. Too often, people spend their time and energy on activities that are good but don't reflect God's purposes for their lives. Decide to seek God's guidance for your life every day.

WEDNESDAY:

KEY VERSE: Colossians 3:23

OBSERVATION: Don't distinguish between sacred and secular work. Realize that God has called all believers in all professions to advance His kingdom on Earth through their work. God can use your work in any field to accomplish powerful goals that have eternal value. Make a commitment to God that you will do all of your work – whatever it is – with excellence to serve Him every day. View yourself in the workplace as one of God's ambassadors.

THURSDAY:

KEY VERSE: Psalm 37:23

OBSERVATION: Move forward one step at a time. Don't wait to act on the guidance that God gives you about how to fulfill your destiny. God's guidance will often come gradually, rather than in a dramatic vision that shows you everything you should do far into the future. Rather than letting your partial understanding limit you, respond to God on the basis of what you do know, trusting that God will continue to guide you step by step to encourage you to stay closely connected to Him.

FRIDAY:

KEY VERSE: Ecclesiastes 3:11

OBSERVATION: Make the most of your time. Every day that God gives you on Earth contains valuable opportunities for you to fulfill your destiny as much as you can. So maximize your time by presenting yourself as a living sacrifice for God every day, ready to say "yes" to whatever He may call you to do.

SATURDAY:

KEY VERSE: Exodus 24:15-16

OBSERVATION: Aim to work for God's glory rather than your own. Keep in mind that the ultimate purpose of fulfilling your destiny is for God to be glorified on Earth, leading people to seek Him and find salvation and redemption through Him. Check your motives for your work regularly. Ask God to root selfish motives out of your life and keep you focused on what matters most for eternity: serving God.
